CASE LAW

Sections 3 & 4 — Applicability — Untouchability — Meaning of — Constitution of India, Article 17.

Nittoor Sreenivasa Rau, J.—‘Untouchability’ under Central Act 22 of 1955 is not intended in its literal or grammatical sense; but refers to the practice as it had developed in this country, based on the ground of birth in certain classes.

Hence, instigation to social boycott of certain persons of a particular community (Jains) by other members, because of the conduct of those persons from the point of view of religious or social observances of the community, would not come within the mischief of the Act. — Devarajiah v Padmanna, 1958 Mys. CASE LAW

Section 4 — Offence of untouchability — Court has no discretion in imposing sentence of imprisonment or fine — Both should be imposed.

B.P. Singh and B.N. Krishnan, JJ., Held.—In the instant case, the learned Magistrate has imposed the sentence of fine of Rs. 250/- each without imposing the minimum statutory sentence of imprisonment. In our view, the sentence passed by the learned Magistrate is illegal because under the amended Section 4, the Court is not only to pass a substantive sentence of imprisonment not less than the statutory minimum, but it is also obliged to impose a sentence of fine not below the statutory minimum i.e., it must pass a sentence of imprisonment and also of fine, and in both cases, the sentence should not be below the statutory minimum. There is no discretion in the Court to pass a lesser sentence. — The State of Karnataka v Annappa and Another, 1991(2) Kar. L.J. 8A (DB) : ILR 1991 Kar. 3220 (DB).

Section 4(i) & (ii) — Sentence.

Honniah and Jagannatha Shetty, JJ.—The provisions of the Act must be strictly followed and the offence when proved, should not be lightly dealt with. There should be proper punishment for any such offence, unless there is any mitigating circumstance. — State of Karnataka v Osman Sab, 1976(2) Kar. L.J. 457 : ILR 1977 Kar. 457.

³[10-A. Power of State Government to impose collective fine.—(1) If, after an inquiry in the prescribed manner, the State Government is satisfied that the inhabitants of an area are concerned in, or abetting the commission of, any offence punishable under this Act, or harbouring persons concerned in the commission of such offence or failing to render all the assistance in their power to discover or apprehend the offender or offenders or suppressing material evidence of the commission of such offence, the State

1. Inserted by Act No. 106 of 1976, w.e.f. 19-11-1976.

2. Explanation inserted by Act No. 106 of 1976, w.e.f. 19-11-1976.

3. Section 10-A inserted by Act No. 106 of 1976, w.e.f. 19-11-1976.

Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, impose a collective fine on such inhabitants and apportion such fine amongst the inhabitants who are liable collectively to pay it, and such apportionment shall be made according to the State Government's judgment of the respective means of such inhabitants and in making any such apportionment the State Government may assign a portion of such fine to a Hindu undivided family to be payable by it:

Provided that the fine apportioned to an inhabitant shall not be realised until the petition, if any, filed by him under sub-section (3) is disposed of.

(2) The notification made under sub-section (1) shall be proclaimed in the area by beat of drum or in such other manner as the State Government may think best in the circumstances to bring the imposition of the collective fine to the notice of the inhabitants of the said area.

(3) (a) Any person aggrieved by the imposition of the collective fine under sub-section (1) or by the order of apportionment, may, within the prescribed period, file a petition before the State Government or such other authority as that Government may specify in this behalf for being exempted from such fine or for modification of the order of apportionment:

Provided that no fee shall be charged for filing such petition. —

(b) The State Government or the authority specified by it shall, after giving to the petitioner a reasonable opportunity of being heard, pass such order as it may think fit:

Provided that the amount of fine exempted or reduced under this section shall not be realisable from any person, and the total fine imposed on the inhabitants of an area under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to have been reduced to that extent.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (4), the State Government may exempt the victims of any offence punishable under this Act or any person who does not, in its opinion, fall within the category of persons specified in sub-section (1), from the liability to pay the collective fine imposed under sub-section (1), or any portion thereof.

(5) The portion of collective fine payable by any person (including a Hindu undivided family) may be recovered in the manner provided by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), for the recovery of fines imposed by a Court as if such portion were a fine imposed by a Magistrate].

11. Enhanced penalty on subsequent conviction.—Whoever having already been convicted of an offence under this Act or of an abetment of such offence is again convicted of any such offence or abetment, ¹[shall, on conviction, be punishable.—

- (a) for the second offence, with imprisonment for a term of not less than six months and not more than one year and also with fine which shall be not less than two hundred rupees and not more than five hundred rupees;
- (b) for the third offence or any offence subsequent to the third offence with imprisonment for a term of not less than one year and not more than two years, and also with fine which shall be not less than five hundred rupees and not more than one thousand rupees.]

12. Presumption by Courts in certain cases.—Where any act constituting an offence under this Act is committed in relation to a member of a Scheduled Castes ²[x x], the Court shall presume, unless the contrary is proved, that such act was committed on the ground of “untouchability”.

13. Limitation of jurisdiction of Civil Courts.—(1) No Civil Court shall entertain or continue any suit or proceeding or shall pass any decree or order or execute wholly or partially any decree or order if the claim involved in such suit or proceeding or if the passing of such decree or order or if such execution would, in any way, be contrary to the provisions of this Act.

(2) No Court shall, in adjudicating any matter or executing any decree or order, recognise any custom or usage imposing and disability of any person on the ground of “untouchability”.

14. Offences by companies.—(1) If the person committing an offence under this Act is a company, every person who at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) where an offence under this Act has been committed with consent of any director or manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

1. Substituted for the words “shall on every such subsequent conviction be punishable with both imprisonment and fine” by Act No. 106 of 1976, w.e.f. 19-11-1976.
2. The words, brackets and figures “as defined in clause (24) of Article 366 of the Constitution” omitted by Act No. 106 of 1976, w.e.f. 19-11-1976.

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or a State Government for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.]

²[15. Offences to be cognizable and triable summarily.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), every offence punishable under this Act shall be cognizable and every such offence, except where it is punishable with imprisonment for a minimum term exceeding three months, may be tried summarily by a Judicial Magistrate of the first class or in a Metropolitan area by a Metropolitan Magistrate in accordance with the procedure specified in the said Code.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), when any public servant is alleged to have committed the offence of abetment of an offence punishable under this Act, while acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his official duty, no Court shall take cognizance of such offence of abetment except with the previous sanction.—

- (a) of the Central Government, in the case of a person employed in connection with the affairs of the Union; and
- (b) of the State Government, in the case of a person employed in connection with the affairs of a State.

15-A. Duty of State Government to ensure that the rights accruing from the abolition of “untouchability” may be availed of by the concerned persons.—(1) Subject to such rules as the Central Government may make in this behalf, the State Government shall take such measures as may be necessary for ensuring that the rights arising from the abolition of “untouchability” are made available to, and are availed of by, the persons subjected to any disability arising out of “untouchability”.

1. Section 14-A inserted by Act No. 106 of 1976, w.e.f. 19-11-1976.

2. Sections 15 and 15-A substituted for Section 15 by Act No. 106 of 1976, w.e.f. 19-11-1976.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1), such measures may include. —

- (i) the provision of adequate facilities, including legal aid, to the persons subjected to any disability arising out of "untouchability" to enable them to avail themselves of such rights;
- (ii) the appointment of officers for initiating or exercising supervision over prosecutions for the contravention of the provisions of this Act;
- (iii) the setting up of special Courts for the trial of offences under this Act;
- (iv) the setting up of Committees at such appropriate levels as the State Government may think fit to assist the State Government in formulating or implementing such measures;
- (v) provision for a periodic survey of the working of the provisions of this Act with a view to suggesting measures for the better implementation of the provisions of this Act;
- (vi) the identification of the areas where persons are under any disability arising out of "untouchability" and adoption of such measures as would ensure the removal of such disability from such areas.

(3) The Central Government shall take such steps as may be necessary to co-ordinate the measures taken by the State Governments under sub-section (1).

(4) The Central Government shall, every year, place on the Table of each House of Parliament, a report on the measures taken by itself and by the State Governments in pursuance of the provisions of this section.]

16. Act to override other laws.—Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, the provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force, or any custom or usage or any instrument having effect by virtue of any such law or any decree or order of any Court or other authority.

[16-A. Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, not to apply to persons above the age of fourteen years.—The provisions of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, (20 of 1958) shall not apply to any person above the age of fourteen years who is found guilty of having committed any offence punishable under this Act.

16-B. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(2) Every rule made by the Central Government under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.]

17. Repeal.—The enactments specified in the Schedule are hereby repealed to the extent to which they or any of the provisions contained therein correspond or are repugnant to this Act or to any of the provision contained therein.

"7-A. Unlawful compulsory labour when to be deemed to be a practice of untouchability.—(1) Whoever compels any person, on the ground of "untouchability", to do any scavenging or sweeping or to remove any carcass or to flay any animal or to remove the umbilical cord or to do any other job of a similar nature, shall be deemed to have enforced a disability arising out of "untouchability".

(2) Whoever is deemed under sub-section (1) to have enforced a disability arising out of "untouchability" shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months and not more than six months and also with fine which shall not be less than one hundred rupees and not more than five hundred rupees.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, "compulsion" includes a threat of social or economic boycott."

11. Amendment of Section 9.—In Section 9 of the principal Act, after the words "place of public worship", the words "or any educational institution or hostel" shall be inserted.

12. Amendment of Section 10.—In Section 10 of the principal Act, the following Explanation shall be inserted at the end, namely.—

"Explanation.—A public servant who wilfully neglects the investigation of any offence punishable under this Act shall be deemed to have abetted an offence punishable under this Act".

13. Insertion of new Section 10-A.—After Section 10 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely.—

"10-A. Power of State Government to impose collective fine.—(1) If, after an inquiry in the prescribed manner, the State Government is satisfied that the inhabitants of an area are concerned in, or abetting the commission of, any offence punishable under this Act, or harbouring persons concerned in the commission of such offence or failing to render all the assistance in their power to discover or apprehend the offender or offenders or suppressing material evidence of the commission of such offence, the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, impose a collective fine on such inhabitants and apportion such fine amongst the inhabitants who are liable collectively to pay it, and such apportionment shall be made according to the State Government's judgment of the respective means of such inhabitants and in making any such apportionment the State Government may assign a portion of such fine to a Hindu undivided family to be payable by it:

Provided that the fine apportioned to an inhabitant shall not be realised until the petition, if any, filed by him under sub-section (3) is disposed of.

(2) The notification made under sub-section (1) shall be proclaimed in the area by beat of drum or in such other manner as the State Government may think best in the circumstances to bring the imposition of the collective fine to the notice of the inhabitants of the said area.

(3) (a) Any person aggrieved by the imposition of the collective fine under sub-section (1) or by the order of apportionment, may, within the prescribed period, file a petition before the State Government or such other authority as that Government may specify in this behalf for being exempted from such fine or for modification of the order of apportionment:

Provided that no fee shall be charged for filing such petition.

(b) The State Government or the authority specified by it shall, after giving to the petitioner a reasonable opportunity of being heard, pass such order as it may think fit:

Provided that the amount of the fine exempted or reduced under this section shall not be realisable from any person, and the total fine imposed on the inhabitants of an area under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to have been reduced to that extent.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3), the State Government may exempt the victims of any offence punishable under this Act or any person who does not, in its opinion, fall within the category of persons specified in sub-section (1), from the liability to pay the collective fine imposed under sub-section (1) or any portion thereof.

(5) The portion of collective fine payable by any person (including a Hindu undivided family) may be recovered in the manner provided by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), for the recovery of fines imposed by a Court as if such portion were a fine imposed by a Magistrate."

14. Amendment of Section 11.—In Section 11 of the principal Act, for the words "shall, on every such subsequent conviction, be punishable with both imprisonment and fine", the words, brackets and letters "shall, on conviction, be punishable—

(a) for the second offence, with imprisonment for a term of not less than six months and not more than one year, and also with fine which shall be not less than two hundred rupees and not more than five hundred rupees;

(b) for the third offence or any offence subsequent to the third offence, with imprisonment for a term of not less than one year and not more than two years, and also with fine which shall be not less than five hundred rupees and not more than one thousand rupees" shall be substituted.

15. Amendment of Section 12.—In Section 12 of the principal Act, the words, brackets and figures "as defined in clause (24) of Article 366 of the Constitution" shall be omitted.

16. Insertion of new Section 14-A.—After Section 14 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely.—

"14-A. Protection of action taken in good faith.—(1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or a State Government for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

(2) No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or a State Government for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act".

17. Substitution of Section 15.—For Section 15 of the principal Act, the following sections shall be substituted, namely.—

"15. Offences to be cognizable and triable summarily.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), every offence punishable under this Act shall be cognizable and every such offence, except where it is punishable with imprisonment for a minimum term exceeding three months, may be tried summarily by a Judicial Magistrate of the first class or in a metropolitan area by a Metropolitan Magistrate in accordance with the procedure specified in the said Code.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), when any public servant is alleged to have committed the offence of abetment of an offence punishable under this Act, while acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his official duty, no Court shall take cognizance of such offence of abetment except with the previous sanction.—

- (a) of the Central Government, in the case of a person employed in connection with the affairs of the Union; and
- (b) of the State Government, in the case of a person employed in connection with the affairs of a State.

15-A. Duty of State Government to ensure that the rights accruing from the abolition of "untouchability" may be availed of by the concerned persons.—(1) Subject to such rules as the Central Government may make in this behalf, the State Government shall take such measures as may be necessary for ensuring that the rights arising from the abolition of "untouchability" are made available to, and are availed of by, the persons subjected to any disability arising out of "untouchability".

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1), such measures may include.—

- (i) the provision of adequate facilities, including legal aid, to the persons subjected to any disability arising out of "untouchability" to enable them to avail themselves of such rights;
- (ii) the appointment of officers for initiating or exercising supervision over prosecutions for the contravention of the provisions of this Act;
- (iii) the setting up of special Courts for the trial of offences under this Act;
- (iv) the setting up of Committees at such appropriate levels as the State Government may think fit to assist the State Government in formulating or implementing such measures;
- (v) provision for a periodic survey of the working of the provisions of this Act with a view to suggesting measures for the better implementation of the provisions of this Act;
- (vi) the identification of the areas where persons are under any disability arising out of "untouchability" and adoption of such measures as would ensure the removal of such disability from such areas.

(3) The Central Government shall take such steps as may be necessary to co-ordinate the measures taken by the State Government under sub-section (1).

(4) The Central Government shall, every year, place on the Table of each House of Parliament, a report on the measures taken by itself and by the State Governments in pursuance of the provisions of this section".

18. Insertion of new Sections 16-A and 16-B.—After Section 16 of the principal Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely.—

"16. Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, not to apply to persons above the age of fourteen years.—The provisions of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 (20 of 1958), shall not apply to any person above the age of fourteen years who is found guilty of having committed any offence punishable under this Act.

16-B. Power to make rules.—(1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the provisions of this Act.

(2) Every rule made by the Central Government under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule".

CHAPTER III Miscellaneous

19. Construction of references.—References in any Act, rule, notification or order to the Untouchability (Offences) Act, 1955, shall, on the commencement of this Act, be construed as references to the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955 (22 of 1955).

20. Savings.—The alteration of the short title of the Untouchability (Offences) Act, 1955 (22 of 1955), shall not.—

- (a) affect the previous operation of the Untouchability (Offences) Act, 1955, or anything duly done or suffered thereunder previous to such alteration; or

- (b) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the Untouchability (Offences) Act, 1955, previous to the alteration of its short title; or
- (c) affect any penalty or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against the Untouchability (Offences) Act, 1955 (22 of 1955), before the commencement of this Act; or
- (d) affect any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty or punishment as aforesaid, and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty or punishment may be imposed as if this Act had not been passed.

CHAPTER IV

Amendment of the Representation of the People Act, 1951

21. Amendment of Act 43 of 1951.—In Section 8 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, in sub-section (1), after the words "the Indian Penal Code," the words and figures "or under the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955" shall be inserted.

S.O. 3006.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 16-B of the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955 (22 of 1955), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, namely.—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Protection of Civil Rights Rules, 1977.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires.—

(a) “Act” means the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955 (22 of 1955);

(b) “Section” means a section of the Act.

3. Manner of inquiry under sub-section (1) of Section 10-A.—(1) The State Government may appoint an Officer not below the rank of a Sub-Divisional Magistrate for the purpose of making an inquiry referred to in sub-section (1) of Section 10-A.

(2) The Officer appointed under sub-rule (1) (hereinafter in this rule referred to as the inquiry officer) shall issue a public notice specifying the date, time, place and the purpose of such inquiry and calling upon all the residents of the area in respect of which the inquiry is to be held to furnish such information and materials, including documents in their possession, as may be relevant for the purposes of the inquiry.

(3) The public notice referred to in sub-rule (2) shall be in the local language or languages of the area and the same shall be. —

- (i) published on the notice board in the offices of the District Magistrate, the District Superintendent of Police, the Village Panchayat or Municipal Committee, of the area and such other places as the inquiry officer deems fit and at least in one daily newspaper circulating in the area; and
- (ii) proclaimed in the area by beat of drum or in such other manner as the inquiry officer may think best in the circumstances to bring the contents of the public notice to the notice of the inhabitants of the area.

(4) The inquiry officer, while making such inquiry shall follow as nearly as practicable, the procedure for summary trials including the recording of evidence as laid down in Chapter XXI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974).

(5) The inquiry officer shall complete the inquiry as expeditiously as possible and submit his report to the State Government within such period, not exceeding six weeks, as may be specified by the State Government in the order appointing the inquiry officer:

Provided that the State Government may, having regard to the nature of the inquiry, extend the period of submission of the report by such period, not exceeding two months in total, as it may consider necessary.

4. Period for filing a petition under sub-section (3) of Section 10-A. —(1) Any person aggrieved by the imposition of a collective fine under sub-section (1) of Section 10-A or by the order of apportionment, may within a period of thirty days from the date of proclamation of the notification under sub-section (2) of the section file a petition before the State Government or the authority specified by it:

Provided that where the State Government or the authority, as the cases may be, may entertain the petition after the expiry of the said period if it is satisfied that the petitioner was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the petition in time.

(2) The State Government or the authority before which the petition is filed shall dispose of the petition as expeditiously as possible.

5. Reports by the State Governments. —Every State Government shall, for the purpose of enabling the Central Government to place the report referred to in sub-section (4) of Section 15-A, on the Table of each House of Parliament, furnish to that Government before the 15th day of February, each year, a summary of the measures taken by it under sub-sections (1) and (2) of that section during the preceding calendar year and shall also furnish such other information as may be required by the Central Government from time to time.
